

The NJ Do Not Call List works well and does not need to be changed to allow telemarketers more access to NJ consumers. We, the consumer, pay for the telephone service in our homes and we do not wish to be contacted by telemarketers. If we want their services we will use the telephone we are paying for to call them.